

The Miner.

Poetical Quotations.

'Tis not enough to help the feeble up,
But to support him after.

True hope is swift, and flies with swallow's wings;
Kings it makes gods, and meaneer creatures kings.

'Tis a cruelty
To load a falling man.

'Tis better to be lowly born,
And range with humble livers in content,
Than to be perk'd up in a glistening grief,
And wear a golden sorrow.

To climb steep hills
Requires slow pace at first

The learned pate
Ducks to the golden fool.

With mirth and laughter let old wrinkles come,
Men give like gold.

When maidens sue,
Shows not till it be struck.

The tongues of dying men
Enforce attention like deep harmony.

Two stars keep not their motion in one sphere.

'Tis better playing with a lion's whelp
Than with an old man dying.

To business that we love, we rise betimes,
And go to it with delight.

There's a divinity that shapes our ends,
Rough-hew them as we will.

The sweat of industry would dry and die
But for the end it works to.

The latter end of a fray, and the beginning of a feast,
Fits a dull fighter and a keen guest.

To such as boasting show their scars
A mock is due.

The bell that men do lives after them,
The good is oft interred with their bones.

'Tis time to fear when tyrants seem to slay.

Unbidden guests
Are often welcome when they are gone.

There is a history in all men's lives,
Figuring the nature of the times deceased.

Trifles light as air
Are, to the jealous, confirmations strong
As proofs of holy writ.

There are more things in heaven and earth,
Than are dreamt of in your philosophy.

Where fair is not, praise cannot amend the brow.

To witful men,
The injuries that they themselves procure
Must be their schoolmasters.

The thing that's heavy in itself,
Upon enforcement flies with greatest speed.

There is some soul of goodness in things evil,
Would men observingly distill it out.

That, sir, which serves and seeks for gain,
And follows but for form,
Will pack when he begins to rain,
And leave thee in a storm.

What king so strong,
Can tie the gall up in the slanderous tongue?

That which in mean men we entitle patience,
Is pale, cold cowardice in noble breasts.

They that stand high have many blazes to shake them,
And if they fall they dash themselves to pieces.

To persist
In doing wrong extends not wrong,
But makes it much more heavy.

Through those that are betray'd
Do feed the treason sharply, yet the traitor
Stands in worse case of woe.

Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown;
Thrice is he arm'd that hath his quarrel just;
And he but naked, though he lock'd up in steel,
Whose conscience with injustice is corrupted.

Children's Etiquette.

Always say yes, sir; yes, papa; no, papa; thank you; no, thank you; good night; good morning; use no slang terms.

Clean faces, clean clothes, clean shoes, and clean finger-nails indicate good breeding. Never leave your clothes about the room. Have a place for everything, and everything in its place.

Rap before entering a room, and never leave it with your back to the company.

Always offer your seat to a lady or old gentleman.

Never put your feet on cushions, chairs or tables.

Never overlook any one when reading or writing; nor talk or read aloud while others are writing.

Never talk or whisper at meetings or public places, and especially in a private room, where any one is singing or playing the piano.

Be careful to injure no one's feelings by unkind remarks. Never tell tales, make faces, call names, ridicule the lame, the unfortunate, nor be cruel to insects, birds, or animals.

Not content with a young American chief admiral, the Japanese have placed their land forces under the command of a New York colonel of volunteers.

Says the Boston Folio: "Kate Field's lecture was refined and interesting. Olive Logan's was silly and stale, Anna Dickinson's was brazen and vulgar, and 'Josh Billings' was coarse but smart."

A sailor at the Brooklyn Navy Yard explained to a curious landman, the other day, how prize money is divided: "It is sifted through a ladder," he said; "What falls through goes to the officers; what sticks the sailors get."

Donn Platt very well says: "The cheapest philanthropy is that which frees somebody else's nigger. Had these slaves belonged to us, instead of to the South, there are any simple enough to believe that we would have had a war of emancipation!"

Mark Twain says: "To be hanged in New Hampshire is happiness—it leaves an honored name behind a man, and introduces him at once into the best New Hampshire society in the other world."

A gentleman in Boston, who takes a business view of most things, when recently asked respecting a person of quite a poetic temperament, replied: "Oh! he is one of those men who have soarings after the infinite, and divinations after the unfathomable, but who never pay cash."

A new Sunday law closing the barber shops and clearing out bootblacks from the streets has gone into effect in Washington City. The law, it is said, was originally introduced into the Council by a leading colored barber.

Freemason's recent illness is supposed to have been caused by a mistake in putting his hair. As long as it is put in the middle he enjoys good health, but just get one hair on the wrong side, and his massive brain becomes unbalanced.—Boston Post.

To make an excellent door mat, take an inch plank of the size desired, and bore three-quarter inch holes through it with their centers two inches apart; into these draw dampened corn husks, and trim off about two inches long on each side. This is good either side up. Anybody can easily make one, and every one can keep his boots clean, much to the gratification of good housekeepers.

CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
Sub-District of Upper Arizona.

FORT WHIPPLE, A. T., Dec. 24, 1869.

Sealed Proposals, in Duplicate, will be received by the undersigned, at this office, until Tuesday, January 25, 1870.

at twelve o'clock M., for supplying the United States Government,

At Fort Whipple, A. T.,

With Four Hundred (400) Tons of Shelled Corn or Barley, of two thousand (2,000) pounds to the ton.

At Camp Verde, A. T.,

With Two Hundred (200) Tons of Shelled Corn or Barley, of two thousand (2,000) pounds to the ton.

At Camp Verde, A. T.,

With One Hundred (100) Tons of Shelled Corn or Barley, of two thousand (2,000) pounds to the ton.

At Camp at Toll Gate, A. T.,

With Five Hundred (500) Tons of Shelled Corn or Barley, of two thousand (2,000) pounds to the ton, for the supply of said Posts during the year ending December 31st, 1870.

Bids will be received for the entire amount, 1,500 Tons, or for the whole or any part of the above amounts at each Post.

The grain must be well sacked, subject to inspection and weight, of the best quality the country affords, free from all foreign substances, and delivered at such times and in such quantities as the Quartermaster's Department of each of the above-named posts may require.

The parties to whom contracts may be awarded will be required within forty-eight (48) hours after the acceptance of the bids, to give bonds equal to fifty (50) per cent. of the amount of the contract for the faithful performance of the same.

Each proposal must be accompanied with a statement, signed by the persons offered by the bidder as his securities, stating their willingness to enter into bonds in case the contract should be awarded to said bidder.

In case of firms making bids, each individual name must be written out.

Prices must be written, as well as expressed in figures. The Oath of Allegiance to the United States Government must accompany each proposal.

The delivery of the grain to commence immediately after the approval of the contracts, by the District, Department and Division Commanders.

Terms must be stated in U. S. gold coin, or the market value thereof in currency, at date of payment.

Payment will be made in such funds as may be furnished by the United States for that purpose, if on hand. If not on hand, certified accounts will be given.

The Government reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

A copy of this advertisement (a slip cut from this paper) must accompany each proposal.

Proposals to be included in an envelope, indorsed "Proposals for Barley, or Corn, at Fort Whipple, Camp Verde, Camp Date Creek and Camp at Toll-Gate, A. T.," and directed to the undersigned.

Bids must be made subject to the conditions of this advertisement; will not be considered unless the persons making them are present, and will not be received from those who have heretofore failed to fulfill their contracts with the Government.

RANCH FOR SALE.

I will sell my ranch, dwelling house, kitchen, corral, stable, wagon and team, poultry, produce, implements, and other appurtenances, to any man who will give me first cost for them. The ranch consists of about 160 acres, 75 acres of which are under cultivation. It is situated in Winkley Valley, 10 miles from Prescott, at the junction of the roads leading to Big Bag, Black Canyon, the Agua Fria and Verde; Laguna Creek flows through it, and upon it is enough timber to supply a whole town for several years.

My ranch, Dec. 4, 1869. M. K. LERTY.

For Sale--At a Bargain.

The lot, corner Gurley and Granite streets, fronting 150 feet on each street, and running back the alley, together with the building thereon, now occupied by D. Henderson & Bro., as a Store, will be sold at a bargain. No finer stand for a store or liquor saloon can be had in town, as the roads leading from the Toll-gate, Wickenburg, Lajap and Tucson, pass in front of the lot.

Possession will be given in about two months, or sooner, if their brick store, now in course of erection, be completed before.

For further particulars apply at the store.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT, THIRD JUDICIAL

District, in and for the county of Yavapai and Territory of Arizona.

JOHN C. MORRISON, Jr., Plaintiff,

vs. W. O. DAVIS, Defendant.

Order of publication.

In pursuance of an execution issued out of the District Court of the Third Judicial District, in and for Yavapai county, Territory of Arizona, by the clerk of said Court, on the 19th day of November, A. D. 1869, to said Court, directing me to make out of the goods of the above named defendant, the sum of two thousand five hundred twenty-two and 55-100 dollars ($2,522 55) together with one hundred thirty-two and 95-100 dollars costs and disbursements to satisfy a judgment rendered in the District Court aforesaid, against the defendant, W. O. Davis, and in favor of the plaintiff, for the above said sum of money, on the 10th day of November, A. D. 1869.

I have therefore levied upon, and will expose to sale, at public auction, to the highest bidder, in front of the Court House, in the town of Prescott, county of Yavapai, and Territory of Arizona, on Saturday, the 18th day of December, A. D. 1869, at 11 o'clock a. m. of said day, the following described property, to wit:

Four hundred and ten (410) feet of mining ground on the first eastern extension on the Ventura lode, situated in the county of Yavapai and Territory of Arizona.

JNO. L. TAYLOR,

Sheriff of Yavapai county,

Prescott, Arizona, Nov. 27, 1869. nov27/69

The above sale is postponed, at request of defendant and by consent of plaintiff, until Thursday, the 20th day of January, A. D. 1870, at 11 o'clock A. M.
